In your email inbox 100,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000 excellent wifi, which is rare with many piers. There was high wind and the dockmaster's chances came to check our boat and tie up the addl. line. Depth can be a bit of a problem. We draw 5 and in some areas only a little more than 6 . Was it helpful? Yes(1) - NoReportSailingonsirenaDec 03, 2018Capt Dee was excellent. Marry us and help us in the dock. Back in the morning to help us throw at catch the bridgeSome is useful? Yes (1) - NoReportHad in a beautiful stay, James was very helpful. It's easy to get in and out. Was it helpful? Yes (1) - NoReportWe have received more prior information than any other marina ever! It was finished with a viewpoint on the map. Dee single-handedly ties us safely and provides a great area of info. The room was quite clean and quite clean. Yes - NoReportWe pulled into Topsail Island late Sunday afternoon. No one came to the radio, so I called the pier and got Captain James to his house. He said that no one works at the pier, but he gave me detailed instructions on how to navigate the entrance channel, which was not difficult. He is also said to choose any open slip, which I did. It's not a big place - I think there is or 25 slips, all floating docks that look new. Another short-lived boat helped us to tie up, and the water and electricity were obvious, so there are no problems there. The only problem was that we never saw anyone who worked at Topsail Island Marina, and we didn't know where the sauna or trash was... and we never found them. Wifi didn't work, but Captain James told me it was because the cable was cut off on the road where the construction was. The entrance and departure were easy, although if you are south, you have to leave just before the top of the hour, because the pier is located near the swing bridge and opens only for an hour. The property offers an unparalleled, tidy service. Was it helpful? Yes - NoReportNo service. The toilet is dirty and a lot of boxes are on the way. No washing. Was it helpful? Yes - NoReportnereuscharlestonNov 17, 2017We stayed here after the owner informed that the pier at that time was basically closed and unmanned. Very good location, very close to the city center. The room was quite clean and quite clean. What guests liked the most: Overall our experience was good, based on the owner letting us know the situation, but the $78.00 rate was top notch what we paid during our 8-day trip down icw on our 37-boat. It was the only booking through DockWa and perhaps the rate is higher because of that. Was it helpful? Yes - NoReportBathrooms is minimal, dirty, unheated, shower and washing is full of storage, washing unsuitable Marina itself is fine, did not work, they did not always pick up the phoneHow is it useful? Yes - NoReportkissedsomefrogsOct 30, 2017Plaus was good. The entrance and exit were fine. They are a transition. There is no Wi-Fi, no fuel dock, no one to meet us, no pump. Laundry and bathrooms were listed but are part of the Yacht Club and we were told they were not available for short-term. There were 50 amp connections, but only one foot worked, so had to use two 30 amp outlets. The room was quite clean and quite clean. If you're pretty self-sufficient, it's a good place, but expensive, considering what you get. Was it helpful? Yes (1) - NoReportWifi was good, Marc, the dock master was very good ... the bathroom needs to work. Was it helpful? Yes - NoReport Harbour Village Marina is a waterfront luxury home community with Hampstead Marina, North Carolina. This community, located around the pier of the Village of Port, is a sailor's paradise.
